floods in various States and release of central share of Calamity Relief Fund (CRF) for 1996-97 is attached. (See below)

The concerned State Government have undertaken necessary relief measures in the affected areas. These included evacuation of marooned people to safer places, operation of relief camps, distribution of essential commodities and provision of medical care to prevent epidemics.

Under the existing scheme of financing relief exenditure, the State Governments undertake relief and rehabilitation mesures in the wake of natural calamities using the corpus of the CRF. Two instalments of Central share of CRF for the year 1996-97 have been released to all State Governments. In addition to the CRF, a National Fund for Calamity Relief is also available for meeting the situation arising out of calamities of rare severity.
